RE: UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES

The law of a jurisdiction may contain legislation (the "legislation") making it criminal for anyone to conduct or attempt to conduct certain financial activities which involve the proceeds of unlawful activities. The transfer of assets into a limited partnership, trust, or other entity may constitute a criminal activity within the scope of such legislation if the assets transferred to such entities were derived from any of the unlawful activities specified in the legislation.

The unlawful activities under the legislation commonly consist primarily of drug-trafficking offences, financial misconduct and environmental crimes. Drug-trafficking offences include the manufacture, importation, sale, or distribution of controlled substances; the commission of acts constituting a continuing criminal enterprise; and transportation of drug paraphernalia.

Financial misconduct includes the concealment of assets from a receiver, custodian, trustee, marshal, or other officer of the court, from creditors in a bankruptcy proceeding, or from a statutory corporation or similar agency or person; the making of a fraudulent conveyance in contemplation of a bankruptcy proceeding or with intent to defeat the bankruptcy law; the giving of false oaths or claims in relation to a bankruptcy proceeding; bribery; the giving of commissions or gifts for the procurement of loans; theft, embezzlement, or misapplication of bank funds or funds of other lending, credit, or insurance institutions; the making of fraudulent bank or credit institution entries or loan or credit applications; and mail, wire, or bank fraud or bank or postal robbery or theft.

Environmental crimes include violations of statutory or regulatory laws. Other specified unlawful activities in such legislation could include counterfeiting, espionage, kidnapping or hostage-taking, the copyright infringement, entry of goods by means of false statements, smuggling, removing goods from the custody of Customs, illegal exporting of arms, and trading with a country's enemies.
